The Plasticsphere is the name given to the miles and miles of plastic, and the creatures that live on it, which appear like floating	mission.
Eating plastic can poison, injure and kill both sea and land	containers.
The Waste Warriors movement aims to encourage children to join their	islands.
This text encourages you to use less single-use plastic, like water bottles, utensils and disposable	interest.
A link to their website is provided so that children can register their	creatures.

3 Read the paragraph beginning Did you know. Find and copy two words which show that plastic is spoiling the environment.

2A

2.

The question asks for two words. Don't be tempted to write any more than that.

2C

4 Which of the following phrases best explains what is written about in the three paragraphs entitled Be a Warrior?

Tick one box

- how plastic has transformed the way that we live
- what can be done to help save the Earth from further damage
- what should have been done to remove plastics from the ocean

Don't rush to answer questions like this. Read all three paragraphs again before you make your decision.
