

Waste Warriors — Question Set 2

1

Why do you think the author starts the text with questions?

2F

.....

.....

2

Use the section entitled Invasion of the Plastisphere to give two feelings the author has about plastic. Find evidence to support your answers.

2D

Author's feelings:	Evidence from the text:
1.
2.

Abstract nouns like 'anger', 'excitement' and 'loneliness' are examples of words that show feelings.

3

Find and copy two phrases from the text which show the admiration the author has for planet Earth.

2G

1.

2.

When it says 'Find and copy', don't write any words that aren't in the text. Make sure you copy the phrases carefully.

4

In the caption underneath the picture of the seashore, the word this is underlined. Why has the author underlined that word?

2G

.....

.....

5

Look at the words that are written in bold within the main text. Which of the following statements explains how they are linked?

2F

Tick one box

All of the words are metaphors.

All of the words describe the plastic.

All of the words show how bad the problem is.

All of the words explain what pollution means.

Challenge

I don't think the author should be asking children to become warriors: that's too dangerous! Children can't make changes anyway — only adults can.

Do you think the octopus is right? Say what you think, why you think it, and give evidence from the text to support your answer.

What I think:
Why I think it:
Evidence from text:

2D