Think about how the word 'gust' is usually used.

4 David's feelings change throughout this extract. Which of the following lists most accurately reflects the order of his feelings?

2H

Tick one box

angry, distracted, dazed, afraid

distracted, afraid, dazed, angry

dazed, afraid, angry, distracted dazed, angry, distracted, afraid

Try and work out what his first feeling is — this will help you eliminate (get rid of) wrong answers.

5 a) The introductory text says David's uncle has sent him to fetch a chest from the top of a tower in the house. Do you think this is the real reason he has sent him? Circle your answer.

Yes No

b) Give reasons to support your answer using evidence from the text.

When finding evidence, you do not need to write it in your own words. It's fine to copy phrases from the text.

Challenge

I predict that David is going to find the chest and return it quickly and safely to his uncle.

Tick a box to show whether you agree or disagree with this statement. Then give a reason for your answer, supported by evidence from the text.
