

The Story of the Amulet — Question Set 2

1 a) In the first paragraph, different forms of the word 'dark' are used. Write them below. 2B

1.  ..... 2.  ..... 3.  .....

b) What is the effect of repeating these different forms of the word 'dark'?

 .....
 .....

Asking 'what is the effect' is like asking what it makes the reader think, imagine or feel.

2 Write down one thing that the light is compared to in the text. 2B

The light is compared to  .....

3 What effect does the Amulet have on the children? Use evidence from the text to support your answer. 2D

Effect on children:	..... .....
Evidence from text:	..... .....

This question is asking how you think they feel. This means there is no wrong or right answer, but you must be able to justify your answer with evidence from the text.

4 We are told the Amulet was once held in a shrine. Which of the following is the best definition of a shrine? 2A

Tick one box

A place which gives out a shining bright light.

A place full of beautiful flowers.

A place which is sacred or holy.

A place where people sing.

5 Use the information given in the extract to write a description of the Amulet in your own words. Remember to mention its voice, its light and anything else the extract has referred to about the Amulet. 2C

 .....
 .....
 .....

Underline the parts of the text that will help you to answer this question.

Challenge

So to find the other half of the Amulet, the children are going to have to find every piece of dust that it smashed into and try and put it together? I don't think that will be very easy!

Convince the lion that this is not what the children will be doing. Using evidence from the end of the text, suggest what they might have to do instead.

.....
 .....
 .....